

STOP VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN MARCH

7th December

Thursday 7th December -
Leaving from Festival Square outside Sheraton Grand Hotel at 6.30pm sharp. The route will take the march along Princes St, via Waverly Bridge, Cockburn St, High St and finishing at City Chambers Quad. Confirmed speakers are Malcolm Chisholm MSP, Mridual Wadhwa of Shakti Women's Aid and Sandy Brindley of Rape Crisis Scotland. Cllr Sheila Gilmore will be chairing the rally at the City Chambers Quad.

Domestic Abuse Helpline: 0800 027 1234

Once again a number of women's organisations have joined forces to organise Edinburgh's Stop Violence against Women March. This is your chance to join in one of the key events during the internationally recognised 16 Days of Activism against Gendered Violence.

Groups involved in this march include: Edinburgh Women's Aid, Edinburgh Women's Rape and Sexual Abuse Centre, NUS Scotland, Shakti Women's Aid, SASSIE, WISE, Women Supporting Women, YWCA Lochend, YWCA Roundabout and YWCA Scotland.

---

The Scottish Women's Convention supports the Edinburgh Stop Violence Against Women March and believes that all women should live free from violence.

Agnes Tolmie
Chairperson, SWC

Debbie King
Senior Development Officer, SWC